Regional Traveller 2012

Restaurants

Programme Description

Regional Traveller is an Antigua & Barbuda Tourism Authority promotional campaign with objectives to stimulate visibility and travel within the region. The programme is strategically designed to make finding and booking deals simple. Major emphasis is placed on the online experience, being hassle free and interactive.

As a result, several tourism service suppliers, from various aspects of tourism will be featured, offering to potential clients a holistic experience.

Programme Timeframe

Regional Traveller Antigua & Barbuda will be launched mid-April 2012. The promotion seeks to stimulate business during the slower periods of the year, with deals valid from April 2012 – October 31, 2012. Based on demand, extension of the above date is possible.

Programme Marketing

Regional marketing initiatives of the Antigua and Barbuda Tourism Authority will be driven by the Regional Traveller programme. In essence, it will be the only programme marketed regionally online, on print and via other electronic means. There is no additional cost to the merchant for marketing and advertising.

Regional travel trade shows that the Antigua & Barbuda Tourism Authority attends will always feature the Regional Traveller Programme, with opportunities to facilitate 'on the spot bookings'. In addition, a Regional Traveller Guide will be produced and circulated as marketing collateral in source markets.

Special focus markets have been identified from an analysis made from the performance of regional sources of travel throughout the past 5 years. Details of this study can be sourced by request made to the Antigua & Barbuda Tourism Authority in Antigua.

Merchants are urged to create a Specials Page (if not already created) with details of the Regional Traveller Programme, as a source of direct marketing in an effort to better lure regional travellers to seal the deals.

How does it Work?

Clients will be driven to the designated webpage, where the viewing of deals and coupons generated for printing. All participating merchants will be listed, based on their category of participation, be it Lodging, Restaurants, Airlines, Carnival or Attractions.

Visitors present printed coupons to restaurants for validation with a CARICOM non Antiguan & Barbudan Identification

For more information, please refer to the Terms and Conditions on the final page or call the Antigua & Barbuda Tourism Authority at 1-268-562-7600

How is the Programme Controlled?

Coupons should only be accepted with the presentation of a non Antigua & Barbuda CARICOM identification.

What's in it for me?

Business! This programme satisfies the objectives of both the Antigua & Barbuda Tourism Authority and the Tourism Service Suppliers that we support. A promotion of this sort means that we both have something to sell to the discerning Regional Traveller in need of a vacation. Deals are well received, and is the pull factor utilized within this campaign; honest and fair pricing for those who reside in the region.

Who else is on board?

Accommodations, Restaurants, Car Rental Companies, Carnival Stakeholders and Attractions, in addition to Airlines form an essential part of the Antigua & Barbuda Regional Traveller Programme.

I'm ready! How do I Participate?

Participation is easy! Simply complete this form communicating your commitment to participate, and in what way.

How do we better this programme for years to come?

Regional Traveller is envisioned to be a sustained programme for many years to come, getting better with experience. Accommodation bookings are made through Antigua & Barbuda Tourism Authority's booking engine, which mean that the programme can be monitored, tweaked, and measured to ensure that it works for all merchants, and as a result, the nation. Periods in need of stimulation, or markets with more potential than being shown means that marketing activities in such market can be blasted seeking a response to such. Consultation will always be sought from merchants prior to any change.
